FUTURE PLANS:

In the upcoming 5 years, I am looking forward to finding new ways of teaching that can help students attain knowledge beyond their limits. Even outside the boundary wall of the colleges and universities. Learning should not remain only work but a passion for them. So, in this way, I want to do research work too, to find new dimensions of teaching that make me capable enough to do a remarkable job in the field of teaching." I want our teaching department to be a reputed one that can provide all the required facilities to our students. It should mainly attract talented students and highly experienced teachers all over our country. We will focus mainly on providing more and more knowledge to our students. Our department will emphasize the students to learn through educational creativity and many other modern technologies.

DECLARATION

I hereby declare that the above information is true to the best of my knowledge & belief.
