I am currently working as an Assistant Professor in the department of AIHC and Archaeology at Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, Amarkantak (A Central University). I completed my M.A. in Ancient Indian History Culture and Archaeology from Deccan College Post Graduate and Research Institute (Deemed to be University), Pune (2009-11), followed by Post-Graduate Diploma in Archaeology from Institute of Archaeology, Archaeological Survey of India, Delhi (2011-13), and Ph.D in AIHC and Archaeology with UGC (NET-JRF) (2014-19) from Deccan College Post Graduate and Research Institute (Deemed to be University), Pune. I was affiliated with Deccan College, Pune for Post-Doctoral Research. I am working as Assistant Secretary of the Indian Society for Prehistoric and Quaternary Studies, Pune, and Assistant Editor of the peer-reviewed journal Man and Environment. I have received two awards from prestigious societies, namely Indian Society for Prehistoric and Quaternary Studies, Pune (Prof. H.D. Sankalia Young Archaeologist Award), and The Indian Archaeological Society, New Delhi (Dr. S.P. Gupta Gold Medal). I am member of four professional bodies. I had received Infosys Foundation Fellowship (2022) at Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute, Pune.

My specialization is in the field of Prehistoric Archaeology, Geoarchaeology, and Field Archaeology, Archaeological Theories and Methods. I have been part of field explorations and excavations in the states of Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Karnataka, Rajasthan, Haryana, Punjab, and Odisha. I have authored over 55 research articles (in English, Hindi, and Marathi) in reputed academic journals, and proceedings, edited books, and co-edited 2 books. I have presented over 30 papers in National and International conferences.
